

WRITING AND EDITING

For the past months, I have been working on a few large editing projects for missionaries, helping them tell their stories with the books they have written. Playing with words and getting them organized in a readable way is a particular joy of mine, and a real sweet spot in my work. And it takes a lot of focused, dedicated time. As I close in on the finish line of these Writers Block projects, I am looking forward to sharing these amazing stories with you of friends who have given their lives to serve the Lord, and the beautiful and incredible things that have happened as a result...not the least of which are the countless lives that have been changed as a result of their coming to know Jesus.

Keep an eye out for more information about these stories and how to get a copy to read and be encouraged by. Lord willing they will be published soon!

So we say with confidence,
"The Lord is my helper;
I will not be afraid.
What can mere mortals
do to me?"

CALLING ALL WHO SEW

We have received a request for a sewing project, and we need sewers who can help!

One of our contacts/friends with a hospice organization was in touch asking if we might be able to sew adult bibs for an Alzheimer/dementia facility nearby, as well as for some of the hospice families she serves. She was telling me how needed these are, and how much it would help the caregivers to have these bibs to use during mealtimes.

Do you sew? Would you be willing to help with this project? We would be so grateful! For more information about this effort, please send us an email at:

A BOOK DRIVE

It is always fun to see how God brings people, opportunities, and resources to TEP! A group from a local church just finished a month-long book drive at the church for The Book Drop. They collected and donated over 350 children's books, and funds to buy hundreds more. We can now share these stories with kids who don't have access to books and the wonderful adventures within. Isn't that fantastic?!

Would you be willing to host a book drive at your church, in your neighborhood, school, or other community source? Let us know! We would appreciate your help with this ongoing and much needed project.
